plied in a telegram, declining to accommodate to his request.

CHEMISTRY.

The Time Will Be Extended.

Although the official existence of the Columbian Exposition ends October 31, it has been practically decided and given out that the gates of Jackson Park will remain open for the reception of visitors long after that time.

The board of directors recently voted to close promptly at the end of the month as specified by Commissioner of Manufactures, but the great fair has been left to the managers, who have decided to keep the grounds and buildings open as long as the weather will permit, and the public can get in.

Mr. W. H. Smith, of the Official closing exercises will occur on the afternoons of the 31st last, but on Nov. 1 the gates will be swung open as usual and 50 cents will admit one to the fair.

Born to Death.

A lot of children were playing in a large yard in front of a house, a few of Squire Warfield's, and Casy's station in town, when some one in a fun flew a lighted match into the fence, which was flamed in a few moments.

In exciting state, Squire Warfield and a dozen or more boys, before he could get to his feet and run, the flame was upon him, burning him so terribly that he lived only a few hours and died in great agony. All the other children escaped unscathed.

Pay Your Taxes.

A few persons will add to their taxes to the State and County if they do not pay them by the 1st of October. The State and County will be compelled to assess us on all tax accounts due when Nov. 1 arrives.

Come forward and settle at once and save the penalty.

Mr. J. Davis, Sheriff, o.n.

DEATHS.
